

Architects ClarkeHopkinsClarke's design for the Whittlesea Tech School.

HUB'S NUTS AND BOLTS REVEALED

WHITTLESEA Tech School is taking shape, with designs for the groundbreaking facility unveiled.

Architects ClarkeHopkinsClarke's design features a double-storey, freestanding building at the front of the Melbourne Polytechnic Epping Campus.

The Tech School, one of 10 being built across Victoria, is intended to be a shared campus for local secondary schools to provide students with access to high-tech training.

Students will be able to attend free of charge.

The Whittlesea building features an industry hub and spaces for workshops, laboratories, digital creation, industry showcases and virtual conferencing.

The school is set to open mid-2018.

For more information visit techschools.education.vic.gov.au